

15 April 2021

PRAG appoints three new members to its Executive

The Pensions Research Accountants Group (PRAG) has made three new appointments to the PRAG Executive Board (the committee that oversees PRAG's operations).

- Andrew Mansell. Andrew is Group Financial Controller at British Airways Pension Services Ltd, having joined BAPSL in 2015 after ten years working in audit with BDO.
- Mark Hedges. Mark recently joined Capital Cranfield having previously been Chief Investment Officer of the Nationwide Pension Fund, and remains on the Fund's board as an independent trustee. He is a member of the PRAG Derivatives Working Party and was a member of the working party that produced investment disclosures guidance, jointly with the Investment Association, in 2016.
- Michael Do. Michael is Head of Finance & Risk Reporting for the HSBC Pension Trust, and is currently a member of both PRAG's Derivatives Working Party and of its Cyber & Fraud Working Party.

Shona Harvie, Chair of the PRAG Executive, said:

"I am very pleased to welcome these three new members to the PRAG Executive. They have made important contributions to PRAG in the past and they will help the Executive lead PRAG's work in the future."

Ends

Notes to editors:

Contacts:

For further information, please contact Mike Hammer, PRAG's Press Officer, on press@prag.org.uk

About PRAG:

Pensions Research Accountants Group ("PRAG") is a leading independent industry body working for the development of occupational pensions schemes, with a focus on financial reporting and internal controls. PRAG is a body of accountants and professionals working in the pensions industry. PRAG is the body recognised by the Financial Reporting Council for the publication of the accounting guidance through the Pensions Statement of Recommended Practice ("SORP") which is a significant focus of our activities. PRAG also issues guidance on other topical areas and responds to consultations on areas affecting occupational pension schemes.

www.prag.org.uk